MyBestHelper named to BCIC-New Ventures Competition's Top 25

Wednesday, August 8, 2012

Last month, we told you about MyBestHelper, winner of 2011's Vancouver Startup Weekend and BCIC Mentor Program company that was selected by the Canadian Innovation Exchange to participate in the Canadian Technology Accelerator. Click here to view July 10th's blog post.

Well, the Vancouver-based startup was recently shortlisted to the Top 25 companies competing in the 2012 BCIC-New Ventures Competition with more than $235,000 in prizes to be won.

Competition judges will announce the 10 finalists on September 4th but in the meantime let's have a closer look at the Top 25. Over the next couple of weeks, BCIC will spotlight each of the 25 finalists.

Everything today is online and on mobile, yet it's not any easier or faster to find child care today than it was a decade ago, and families and caregivers are equally frustrated. MyBestHelper brings an innovative solution: families can find, book and pay trustworthy child caregivers for a flat fee of just $12.

MyBestHelper have an accomplished co-founder team that has implemented large scale IT and digital media projects and is focused on "4G": Good - solving this real problem, Great - dominating the market category, Global - being available world-wide and Giving - back to communities and other entrepreneurs.

The 10 finalists of the 2012 BCIC-New Ventures Competition will be announced September 4, 2012. Stay tuned!
